SUMMARY OF ORIGINAL BILL: Eliminates the 75 day limit in which the Government Operations Committee of the House of Representatives or the Government Operations Committee of the Senate (Committees) are authorized to stay the running of the 90 day period prior to the effective date of a rule.

FISCAL IMPACT OF ORIGINAL BILL:

NOT SIGNIFICANT

SUMMARY OF AMENDMENT (004072): Deletes and rewrites all language after the enacting clause such that the substantive change is adding language to establish a time limit on the stay that does not extend past the fifth legislative day of the subsequent year from when the rule is filed with the Secretary of State.

FISCAL IMPACT OF BILL WITH PROPOSED AMENDMENT:

Unchanged from the original fiscal note.

Assumptions for the bill as amended:

- Pursuant to Tenn. Code Ann. § 4-5-207, no rule, unless filed as an emergency, will become effective until 90 days after the rule is filed with the Secretary of State.
- Pursuant to Tenn. Code Ann. § 4-5-215(b), the Committees are authorized to stay the running of the 90 day period for a time no longer than 75 days.
- The Committees are required to file a notice of the stay with the Secretary of State. The notice is required to specify the expiration date of the stay.
- Establishing that the stay, when the Committees find it necessary, cannot extend past the fifth legislative day of the subsequent year the rule was filed with the Secretary of State is not estimated to significantly impact the policies or procedures of the Committees or various state departments.
- No significant impact to state or local government.
